10:15 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. Guest Briefers Round Two

- Per the issue calendar and my letter, we will work to reinvigorate the voice of the Board, notably where we can provide value as a convener and in spotlighting issues. The impact of technology on civil rights and on disability rights is one of these issues, ultimately advancing the capacity of an Agency like the Commission and of the public.
 1. I held a public policy dialogue in February at the German Marshall Fund of the U.S.
 2. I am currently working with stakeholders to hold, to facilitate, and to speak at a panel on tech and disability rights in July.
- Joshua Crocket, 32d Degree Mason and Honors Law Student the Level and Civil Rights, Building Actual Organic Diversity and Inclusion
- Donald King, Esq. President of the Civil Rights Council Equipping FEPA Agencies to be Up-to-date with the Future
- Two action deliverables for Chair and for the Board of Commissioners to discuss in their private consultations: Multi-state EEO Agency Round Table on Data Sharing and Compact
